CORRIGENDUM NOTE

Some of the Nursing Schools students have taken examination orders through the Honourable High Court of Karnataka. They are permitted to take the examination 1st year, 2nd year and 3rd year. But Hon'ble High court passed an order to take the examination for the academic year 2013-2014 subject the result of the writ petition.

The Board accepted the order of the Hon'ble High court and the students are taken the examinations, but Nursing schools have not submitted the copy of the further orders to announce the result to the Board. Therefore the Board withheld the result of the academic year 2013-2014, those who are taken the examination.

And further, some of the Nursing schools have not cleared the Examination Fees, and such Nursing school students result is also withheld and due list sent to concerned institutions through an E-mail, but some of the institutions have not cleared the dues.

As early as possible please submit the copies of the court orders of the writ petitions for announcement of the result and pay the dues of the examination fees may kindly be submitted forthwith, and after the Board will be release the result.
